VIII. Overall Impressions:

The Transition Team is pleased to present to you Pastor Kyle Bailey. We have found Kyle to be articulate, intelligent, sound in his doctrine, and grounded in scripture. In addition, Pastor Kyle has a strong desire to minister in a church that operates in the fruit and gifts of the Holy Spirit.

He is excited about this opportunity and is committed to Faith Tabernacle. His energy is impressive and contagious. We believe all of these attributes will help draw young people and young families.

Pastor Kyle and Amanda feel called to this area! They are not intimidated with Flint and its problems, but see the Flint area as a great opportunity. There was an offer for him to replace the pastor at Vero Beach, and other opportunities were also available, but he and his wife did not feel peace until being contacted by Shepherd's Staff regarding Faith Tabernacle. The Baileys express that they feel total peace about this ministry.

Amanda Bailey is a genuine and loving person. She is a stay at home mother right now, keeping up with four boys. In the past, she has taught in a Christian school and has a huge heart for middle and high school kids. She has experience with praise and worship, and would love to help and serve in that area. Both Amanda and Pastor Kyle are skilled at using social media to help spread the good news. After Florida's last hurricane, he set up a YouTube outreach for victims of the hurricane and now has 30,000 subscribers!

In the material Pastor Kyle sent to Shepherd's Staff, he wrote that he had been repeating a prayer for the last two years—a prayer for God to send him wherever He wants. He just wants to spend his life for Him. Like Genesis 12 says...Leave the comfortable land – “go where I'm sent.”

VI. Personal/Professional Reference Excerpts:

I would recommend him as a senior pastor without any reservation.”

I have worked alongside Kyle for approximately the past 2 years (2018-2020) as Vice President of the board of directors for The Source Ministries in Vero Beach FL. I have experienced his dedication and devotion first hand. He has a tireless work ethic, and his loving positive attitude is infectious to anyone in the room.

He has shown himself to be honorable, steadfast, and obedient to all that God has called him to accomplish. He is a strong leader, a good listener and has been a picture of a devoted and loving husband and father to his family.”

“Passion is a very powerful emotion, and there is no greater passion than to serve the Lord with all your heart and soul! Kyle Bailey has that type of passion. I have been blessed to know and work with Kyle over the past two years and one thing is obvious, he is a passionate servant leader for the Lord Jesus Christ. He not only hears God but once he does, he springs into action.”

“Watching him not only as a pastor, but as a loving husband and father, caring friend and an accomplished leader, gives me hope for future generations who come under his care!”
